

A guide to what you need to know about Vintage Racing

Compiled by
E. Paul Dickinson

VMC commissioned E. Paul Dickinson to author this 122-page highly illustrated textbook about the basics of automobile racing. E. Paul is a track-savvy veteran who has earned SCCA National, IMSA, Grand-Am and FIA licenses, starting in the mid-60s and on through the 90s. He is a six-time SCCA Solo National Champion as well as road racer who partnered and drove for Porsche's Factory Playboy/Escort Endurance Racing Team. E. Paul was chief instructor and owner of a 40-acre SCCA approved driver training center that also provided accredited law enforcement driver training programs. He was Chief Instructor for Historic Sports Car Racing (HSR) from 1995 through 2002. A member since 1997 and currently Strategic Adviser to the Board of the Vintage Motorsports Council (VMC), E. Paul developed and conducts VMC's Nationwide Instructor Certification Program. He is the Official Driving Instructor at WeatherTech Raceway Laguna Seca, and designed and directed Track Orientation Programs at the Rolex Monterey Motorsports Reunion and Pre-Reunion, and the Porsche Rennsport Reunions 5 & 6. E. Paul brings workshops, programs, talks, and individual coaching directly to clients at locations of their choosing in North America.

The Ace Factor, now in its 3rd edition, is widely used by organizations in their racing school curriculums and/or to provide to racers new to the sport. It is an excellent text book on the basics of racing (terminology, technique, etc.) and provides an overview of the vintage racing ethic.
